

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

One of the basic tenets of capitalism is that with competition, quality goes up and cost goes down. I would like to see more competition in the media marketplace, NOT LESS!
